up everyday tasks. Even in organizations that use modern software, employees often start from scratch or copy–paste old files. That habit leads to version drift, missed branding guidelines, and wasted hours re–entering data. For a curious beginner, the pain points are familiar: a junior analyst spends an afternoon aligning tables, while a manager waits for a final report that still needs a logo tweak. OC Templates act like a library of pre–built building blocks. Once a template is defined–complete with placeholders, styles, and conditional logic–any team member can pull it into their workspace and fill in the variables. The result is a document that automatically conforms to corporate standards without extra effort.
