One key mistake to avoid is oversaturation – plastering the same generic flyer on every bulletin board and kiosk. This tactic not only leads to flyer fatigue but also fails to reach students who actively seek out relevant events. A smarter alternative is to create targeted flyers for specific demographics, clubs, or student organizations. By tailoring the design and messaging, you can increase relevance and grab the attention of your target audience. Consider collaborating with students from different backgrounds to ensure your flyers resonate with various groups and foster a sense of inclusivity.
