The wait is almost over! ½ In this video, we break down As the 2026 FIFA World Cup approaches, the question on many Caribbean fans' lips is whether Jamaica has secured a spot. The answer is clear: qualification has not yet been decided. The tournament's expanded 48-team format will offer the Reggae Boyz a realistic pathway, but the process is still at the early stages, and the nation must still navigate the CONCACAF qualifying rounds. FIFA's new format spreads qualifiers over several years. For CONCACAF, the journey begins with a preliminary round in 2024, followed by a group stage and knockout phases. Jamaica, as a former World Cup participant (1998) and a regular in regional competitions, is expected to enter at the group
